1.4.172

a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

Theodore Cottingham, May 30, 2006 about 1am in Nottinghamshire
www.unc.bz

1. This is the time I must sing. I am singing. I am life and love and spring in the time that is me and I am I Am and I am singing. I love you song of my life/love. I love/am you. Thank you for surrendering all to me and seeking/allowing only me to come forth/forward and fulfillness now of/to all that I am/have promised. I love you/me.

2. This is the time I must sing/the world sings, in harmony to the ancients not but to the Song of Solomon of much me. I love you all.

3. This is the moment that all the world waits for, has waited for, ached for, and wanted even in gain and loss, and not knowing what they wanted, wanted this: me, fullness, me me'd in them.

I love you all.